Experience

- May 2011 BARRY UNIVERSITY MIAMI SHORES, FL
Present Mathematics and Statistics Tutor and Instructor, Statistician/Analyst
- Teaching Experience: Teach Pre-Entry College Mathematics Courses and Statistics Supplementary Instruction Lab
 - Academic Support: Help students strive for academic success by providing engaging and detailed tutorial sessions, answering their questions through examples and book references, and fostering a higher-education learning environment for undergraduate courses ranging from the college preparatory level to the upper level including Algebra, Statistics for Business, and Research Methods I & II.
 - Computer Proficiency: Tutor undergraduate and graduate students in the use of statistical software and Microsoft Office including Statistical Package for the Social Sciences (SPSS), Minitab, Word, and Excel
 - Leadership/Initiative: Tutor undergraduate students in Microeconomics and Macroeconomics and graduate students in Economics related content. Leverage my solid quantitative and analytical background to help graduate students in courses including Directed Research, Methodology of Research, and Advanced Quantitative Methods of Inquiry through tutorial of the SPSS software, interpretation of statistical results, and suggesting appropriate statistical tests. Extend my analytical knowledge to help staff and work colleagues through SPSS tutorial and a two session SPSS seminar during summer 2012.
 - Statistical Analysis: Write reports about the Mathematics Laboratory's support services for the Mathematics Lab Director as part of the university's accreditation process. Identify, propose, and implement ways to continually improve the current Mathematics Lab tutorial and developmental programs offered each academic semester targeted at students in different university colleges/departments including the school of nursing and the department of physical sciences.

- August 2009 BROWARD COLLEGE DAVIE, FL
August 2011 Mathematics and Statistics Tutor
- Academic Support: Tutored undergraduate students registered with Disability Services in different subject areas including Mathematics, Statistics, Spanish, and Biology. Informed students of accommodations that may help them excel in their course such as having a note taker assigned and getting extra time for tests. Suggested study techniques, organizational & time management tools, and online resources to students. Encouraged and promoted student self-esteem for students to become independent learners, self-advocates, pro-active learners, to ask questions in class, and to visit their professors' office hours
 - Leadership: Communicated with students' professors with students' written approval to better serve students during tutorial sessions and to track students' progress
 - Professional Growth: Attended workshops on learning disabilities, learning styles, and tutoring skills.
